

Topics in American Law

Course Number: LAW-521

Class Number: 04099

Course Description:

This course provides LL.M. and M.C.L. students with a survey of various topics in American law, including torts, criminal law and criminal procedure, evidence, constitutional law, contracts, and trusts. Open to LL.M. and M.C.L. students only. Students may enroll in Fall or in Spring.

Unit Value: 3

Grading Option: CR/D/F grading available

Exam:

Participation:

Enrollment Limitations: None

Prerequisite: None