

Class Notes for 1993

Name	Comment	Posted on
Lee Hejmanowski	After working as a trial lawyer and partner at the San Diego law firm of Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek for more than 18 years, Lee Hejmanowski formed Caldarelli Hejmanowski & Page, LLP in November 2011. He and his partners handle business litigation (and select marital dissolution proceedings) throughout California and Nevada.	02/08/2012
Ann-Marie Villicana	Our little boys arrived a little early...over labor Day Weekend...how appropriate! Little Nicholas and Alexander are big and healthy and adorable. We are so thankful and grateful. My primary duties now are diaper changer, bottle feeder and bather! Thank goodness the real estate market has been a little slower recently! My husband and I had fun at the Reunion seeing those that attended. Amazing how you remember one another after all these intervening years and then resume conversation without difficulty.	11/20/2008
Rick Radillo	Rick co-owns an integrated real estate/mortgage/tax business in Long Beach area. His wife of nearly 12 years is expecting their first child due summer '08. Looking forward to the reunion.	02/04/2008
Gregory Hoffman	As of April 14, 2007 Greg Hoffman joined LiveCareer as Legal Counsel and Head of Business Affairs. He and his partner, Brad, are staying very busy with their 21 month old son, Hayes.	07/18/2007
David Pendleton	David Pendleton (USC law '93) was recently appointed by the Governor of Hawaii and confirmed by the Senate of Hawaii to become an administrative law judge for a term to begin July 1, 2006 and end on June 30, 2016. There, he will decide appeals of workers' compensation cases. David and his wife Noemi have four children. He has served as an elected member of the Hawaii House of Representatives and as a senior policy advisor to the Governor of Hawaii.	07/18/2007
John Carlson	John Carlson is an appellate lawyer with the Federal Public Defender in Denver, Colorado. He lives in Boulder, where his wife Sarah teaches at the CU Law School. Daughter Lucy is six.	07/18/2007
Cheryl Leutjen	After enjoying six months off (thanks to a generous severance from ChevronTexaco), I plunged into the World of Business. I bought a small store in Eagle Rock last year, which we now call The Blissful Soul. It's close to the elementary school where both Cameron (age six) and Chloë (age 5) will attend school next fall, and it's great to be near them. If you're in the market for very fine candles, one-of-a-kind jewelry, aromatherapy oils and incense, inspiring and music, please come see us! We showcase local and fair trade world artisans. See www.blissfulsoul.com .	07/18/2007

Mark Chatow	Mark Chatow has been named Vice President, Marketing for Las Vegas based Gemstone Development. Mark is responsible for marketing the company's 700 unit Manhattan Condominium development on Las Vegas Boulevard as well as the upcoming 750 unit mixed-use ManhattanWest project located in Southwest Las Vegas. Mark and his wife Kristina (BA '00, MSW '02) reside in Las Vegas and Newport Coast, CA.	07/18/2007
Sheryl Silverstein	Sheryl Silverstein has returned to private practice as a member of the BioTechnology Law Group in Solana Beach. She specializes in patent procurement, freedom to operate and litigation avoidance counseling, and strategic global management of patent portfolios.	07/18/2007
William Berner	Bill, Laura and their two year old son Trey are enjoying life in Portland, and even starting to grow gills. Bill was recently named Assistant General Counsel, Assistant Secretary and Managing Attorney for IP at NIKE.	07/18/2007
Joseph Chi	After 12 years of practicing in various fields of law, I switched careers and am now working at Dimensional Fund Advisors as a portfolio manager in international equity.	07/18/2007
Keith Newburry	Keith and Natalie welcomed Dylan Newburry into the world on November 29, 2005 in Pasadena, California. All are fine and little Dylan already has his little USC football jersey (No. 5) ready to go for next season.	07/18/2007
Sheryl Silverstein	Sheryl Silverstein has returned to private practice as a member of the BioTechnology Law Group in Solana Beach. She specializes in patent procurement, freedom to operate and litigation avoidance counseling, and strategic global management of patent portfolios.	05/04/2007
Cheryl Leutjen	After enjoying six months off (thanks to a generous severance from ChevronTexaco), I plunged into the World of Business. I bought a small store in Eagle Rock last year, which we now call The Blissful Soul. It's close to the elementary school where both Cameron (age six) and Chloë (age 5) will attend school next fall, and it's great to be near them. If you're in the market for very fine candles, one-of-a-kind jewelry, aromatherapy oils and incense, inspiring and music, please come see us! We showcase local and fair trade world artisans. See www.blissfulsoul.com .	05/04/2007
Mark Chatow	Mark Chatow has been named Vice President, Marketing for Las Vegas based Gemstone Development. Mark is responsible for marketing the company's 700 unit Manhattan Condominium development on Las Vegas Boulevard as well as the upcoming 750 unit mixed-use ManhattanWest project located in Southwest Las Vegas. Mark and his wife Kristina (BA '00, MSW '02) reside in Las Vegas and Newport Coast, CA.	05/04/2007

John Carlson	John Carlson is an appellate lawyer with the Federal Public Defender in Denver, Colorado. He lives in Boulder, where his wife Sarah teaches at the CU Law School. Daughter Lucy is six.	05/04/2007
Keith Newburry	Keith and Natalie welcomed Dylan Newburry into the world on November 29, 2005 in Pasadena, California. All are fine and little Dylan already has his little USC football jersey (No. 5) ready to go for next season.	05/04/2007
Joseph Chi	After 12 years of practicing in various fields of law, I switched careers and am now working at Dimensional Fund Advisors as a portfolio manager in international equity.	05/04/2007
William Berner	Bill, Laura and their two year old son Trey are enjoying life in Portland, and even starting to grow gills. Bill was recently named Assistant General Counsel, Assistant Secretary and Managing Attorney for IP at NIKE.	05/04/2007